Research results, Demographic Disaster in West Papua, by Dr. Jim Elmslie (University of Sydney). The table shows the depopulation of indigenous Papuan inhabitants that has occurred in the last 40 years. "Today, West Papua is an Indonesian colony. That means West Papua's resources that belong to the people of West Papua are used and exploited by somebody else."

FORTY-SIXTH PACIFIC ISLANDS FORUM

PORT MORESBY, PAPUA NEW GUINEA 8 – 10 September 2015

FORUM COMMUNIQUÉ

West Papua (Papua)

- 16. Leaders recalled their decisions and concerns expressed at their meeting in 2006 about reports of violence in Papua, in which they also called on all parties to protect and uphold the human rights of all residents in Papua and to work to address the root causes of such conflicts by peaceful means.
- 17. Leaders recognised Indonesia's sovereignty over the Papuan provinces but noted concerns about the human rights situation, calling on all parties to protect and uphold the human rights of all residents in Papua. Leaders requested the Forum Chair to convey the views of the Forum to the Indonesian Government, and to consult on a fact finding mission to discuss the situation in Papua with the parties involved.

"Because it is now known what was wrong in the past, I have now become the subject. I now have the right to stand up for myself. To decide for myself. And that right will be recognized by the world. The world will recognize our struggle and the world will have to respect our human rights." (Amungme leader Tom Beanal, November 2005)
