MINI SEMINAR ON FUND MANAGEMENT AND CHANGES TO THE PETROLEUM FUND LAW

The Ministry of Finance is pleased to invite Members of Parliament, Council of Ministers, Consultative Council of the Petroleum Fund, Civil Society, Government Staff and media to attend a half-day mini seminar on fund management and changes to the Petroleum Fund Law.

The purpose of the mini seminar is to provide capacity building on fund management and financial investments. In addition, as part of the consultation process, a presentation on the draft PF Law amendments will also be presented in order to provide all stakeholders with an opportunity to comment on changes to the PF Law prior to its submission to the National Parliament.

The mini seminar will take place on:

SATURDAY 23 OCTOBER 2010

09:00am –12:30pm

MINISTRY OF FINANCE, KNOWLEDGE CENTRE, 1st FLOOR

Peter Ryan-Kane, Head of Portfolio Advisory, Towers Watson will give a presentation regarding issues related to financial investment, investment strategy options and fund management, while the Ministry of Finance will present draft amendments to the PF Law.

Yours sincerely

Emilia Pires
Minister of Finance
