1. FOUNDATIONS FOR FOREIGN AID POLICY

The Government’s Foreign Aid Policy is based on existing agreements and principles:

1. Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness: In 2005, more than 200 developing and developed countries met in Paris where they agreed to improve the quality of aid and its impact on development. Amongst OHA resolutions, developed countries agreed to align their activities to the priorities of developing countries.

2. ACCRAGENDA FOR ACTION: In September 2008, more than 80 countries, all OECD donors and NGOs from around the globe were joined by representatives of emerging economies, the UN and multilateral organizations met in Accra where developing countries committed to take control of their own future and donors pledged to co-ordinate their activities with the priorities of developing countries.

3. Busan Partnership for Effective Development Cooperation: The Busan Declaration (2011) reaffirmed the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action. One of the main promises aspect of Busan Declaration is the call for the use of developing countries’ past financial management systems for development financing and support the strengthening of these systems.

4. The New Deal for Engagement in Fragile States: The “New Deal” (2011) sets forth a new paradigm for engagement in fragile and conflict affected states that is defined by the principles of country-owned, and country-led development.

5. Aid Management Effectiveness Policy: Approved in 2017, the document locates the global agenda on Aid Effectiveness.

6. Timor-Leste is a founding member of the G7+. Leader in organization of fragile and conflict affected states.

   - Country’s Programs and Priorities
   - Alignment
   - Procedures of Engagement
   - Use of Country System

PARIS DECLARATION

The Paris Declaration endorsed a set of fundamental principles aimed at making aid more effective:

1. Ownership: Developing countries design their own objectives and strategies for development and poverty reduction.

2. Alignment: Donor countries align behind these objectives and use local systems.

3. Harmonization: Donor countries coordinate, simplify procedures and share information to avoid duplication and overlapping.

4. Results: Development partners and developing countries should focus on outcomes.

5. Mutual Accountability: Developing countries and development partners are accountable for development results.
ACCRA AGENDA FOR ACTION (AAA)
The AAA seeks to strengthen and deepen the implementation of the Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness. It hinges on three main themes:

1. OWNERSHIP: Developing countries set their own strategies for development and take a stronger leadership role in coordinating aid. Development partners should use country systems to deliver aid.

2. INCLUSIVE PARTNERSHIPS: All relevant stakeholders including new donors and civil society organizations should participate fully in this process.

3. DELIVERING RESULTS: that will have real and measurable impact on development.

BUSAN PARTNERSHIP FOR EFFECTIVE DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION
The Busan Partnership reiterates the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action. It also highlights a set of principles for all development stakeholders aimed at making cooperation more effective:

1. OWNERSHIP: Developing countries should define the development model that they wish to implement.

2. FOCUS ON RESULTS: The driving force behind investments and policy is to have a sustainable impact on development.

3. PARTNERSHIPS FOR DEVELOPMENT: Development depends on the participation of all relevant stakeholders and recognizes the diversity and complementarity of their functions.

4. TRANSPARENCY AND SHARED RESPONSIBILITY: Development cooperation must be transparent and accountable to all citizens.

THE NEW DEAL FOR ENGAGEMENT IN FRAGILE STATES (The New Deal)
Developed by the G7+ to create a global paradigm for international engagement in fragile states, it is informed by the lessons of the Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness and the Accra Agenda for Action, currently subscribed to by 44 sovereign states and numerous international organizations. Creates three pillars with which to engage in development:

1. PEACEBUILDING AND STATEBUILDING GOALS: Promotes five key areas as foundation for progress and to guide the work in fragile and conflict affected states.

2. FOCUS: promotes inclusive country-owned and country-led mechanisms for planning and coordination.

3. TRUST: Promotes principles for providing aid and managing resources more effectively and to align these resources for results while using country systems.

AID MANAGEMENT EFFECTIVENESS POLICY
Following consultations, the Aid Management Effectiveness Policy was passed in March of 2017. The Foreign Aid Policy is not a significant departure from the AMEP. Instead it should be thought of as a revision.

1. SIMILARITIES: Ultimately, both documents aspire to localize the global agenda on aid effectiveness, that is, improving aid coordination, harmonization, ownership, and alignment.

2. DIFFERENCES: The Foreign Aid Policy presents a more focused approach that proposes practical and clear steps that can be taken to better ensure aid effectiveness.

2. MOTIVATION FOR FOREIGN AID POLICY

1. Development partners have provided $201.0 million a year on average for the past five years, however assistance has been steadily decreasing.

2. Need for improvement of procedures and guidelines for development partners to begin supporting activities.

3. Lack of specific information on how development partners are supporting Government priorities.

Conclusion: Not properly accounting for and/or coordinating this investment represents a massive missed opportunity for the Government.

Proposed Solution: The VIII Constitutional Government proposes a new Aid Policy to improve country ownership, encourage use of country systems, and increase Timor-Leste’s leadership role in development assistance.
