h) royalties received by the Transitional Administration;

i) fines, regulatory charges, damages from civil actions, and insurance proceeds paid to the Transitional Administration; and

j) grants and gifts received by the Transitional Administration.

Section 5
Receipt of public money

5.1 An Agency or person employed by an Agency shall not receive public money or hold public money pending transfer to the Transitional Administration unless such Agency or person has been authorized to do so by:

(a) the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority in writing; or

(b) a Regulation.

5.2 All receipts of the Transitional Administration shall be deposited into an official bank account.

5.3 A person who receives public money (including money that becomes public money upon receipt) must deposit it into an official bank account promptly.
5.4 No person shall receive money or property while purporting to be acting in any official capacity or while conveying the impression that their actions are authorized by the Transitional Administration unless they are authorized by Regulation to receive money or property in that manner.

Section 6
Expenditure of public money

6.1 A person must not misapply public money or improperly dispose of, or improperly use, public money.

6.2 Expenditure of public money shall only occur after the Treasurer has issued an expenditure authorization notice notifying an Agency that it is authorized to make expenditures of that part of the appropriation specified in the notice.

6.3 Payments of public money may only be made in conformity with Section 32.5.

Section 7
Official bank accounts

7.1 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority shall open and maintain one or more official bank accounts for public money and may delegate this responsibility to the Treasurer.

7.2 Where public money is held in trust for the Transitional Administration, it will be treated as if it is held in an official bank account until it is received by the Transitional Administration.

7.3 Any official bank account opened by the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority or the Treasurer pursuant to the powers granted by Section 7.1 must have a name that includes the word “Official”.

7.4 An account for the receipt, custody, payment or transmission of public money must not be opened except in accordance with this Section.

Section 8

8.3 All interest received on investments made pursuant to this Section shall be included in the Consolidated Fund of East Timor.
Section 9
Earmarked receipts accounts

9.1 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority shall establish separate ledger accounts for earmarked receipts and shall ensure that appropriations from those accounts are only for the purposes for which the accounts are established.

9.2 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority may delegate to the Treasurer the power set out in Section 9.1.

9.3 Rules attaching conditions to the expenditure of an appropriated earmarked receipts may be established by Regulation or may be designated by the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority where no Regulation establishes such rules.

9.4 Interest or other receipts derived from the investment of earmarked receipts shall be treated as further earmarked receipts subject to the same rules that apply to the original earmarked receipts.

Section 10
Earmarked receipts of designated services authorities

10.1 Earmarked receipts of a designated services authority shall be appropriated only for the purposes of that authority.

10.2 Receipts derived from the sale of assets or provision of goods and services by a designated services authority earned up to 12 months prior to the transfer of the operations and assets of the designated services authority to an autonomous public authority shall be considered earmarked funds that may only be appropriated for the purpose of capitalizing the autonomous public authority.

Section 11
Guarantees and borrowings by the Transitional Administration

11.1 An agreement for the borrowing of money by the Transitional Administration is of no effect unless the borrowing is authorized by a Regulation.

11.2 The Transitional Administration may only issue to a lender evidence of a debt to be repaid by the Transitional Administration where the Transitional Administration has received money or another asset equal to the market value of the evidence of the debt.

11.3 The Head of Central Fiscal Authority shall be the sole authorized agent for borrowing or lending of the Transitional Administration and shall:

(a) represent the Transition Administration in all borrowing or lending arrangements; and
(b) maintain original documents and registers of all borrowing and lending arrangements, including guarantees and contingent liabilities.
11.4 Where an Agency enters into a contract providing for payments to be made by the Agency after the end of the fiscal year in which the contract is made, the contract will be valid after the end of that fiscal year only to the extent amounts to be paid under the contract are the subject of an appropriation.

11.5 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority may issue a guarantee or assurance which commits the Transitional Administration:

(a) without further authorization, for an amount no greater than the appropriations to the Central Fiscal Authority that are not expended; and
(b) where authorized by Regulation, for the amount specified in the Regulation.

11.6 No guarantee or assurance other than a guarantee or assurance validly made under Section 11.5 shall be binding on the Transitional Administration.

11.7 When the conditions for guarantees and assurances are invoked which require expenditures on the part of the Transitional Administration in order to meet the guarantee and assurance commitments, the expenditures shall be considered to be part of debt servicing expenditures.

Section 12
Loans by the Transitional Administration

12.1 An appropriation may be made for the purpose of making a loan to any enterprise or organization provided:

(a) details of the principal of the loan and the entitlement of the Transitional Administration to interest or an amount in the nature of interest are provided in a government finances Regulation approved by the National Council;
(b) evidence of indebtedness to the Transitional Administration (whether by way of bond, debenture, promissory note or other evidence) by the borrower provides the Transitional Administration with legally enforceable rights to require repayment of the loan prior to maturity in the event of default of any payment of interest or principal due under the loan; and
(c) the Transitional Administrator is provided with full security for the loan or enjoys a security interest in all assets of the borrower in the event of default.

12.2 The terms of a loan by the Transitional Administration may only be changed:

(a) by Regulation; or
(b) by the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority if the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority has advice from an independent auditor that the debt or part of the debt cannot be recovered.
Section 13
Implementation of the public service payroll

13.1 The Central Fiscal Authority is responsible for:

(a) making payments in respect of the responsibilities of an Agency arising from appropriations for wages of employees of the Transitional Administration; and
(b) carrying out the responsibilities of the Transitional Administration as an employer for withholding taxes or other amounts from wages as required by tax or other Regulations.

13.2 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority may establish by means of an administrative instruction the manner in which an employee can identify him or herself as a person entitled to receive a payment of wages.

13.3 Where an employee fails to identify him or herself in the manner set out in an administrative instruction authorized by Section 13.2 as an employee entitled to receive a payment of wages, the payment of wages is suspended until the employee identifies him or herself in that manner.

13.4 Where there is no appropriation for the payment of wages of employees of the Transitional Administrator during a period, the obligation of the employees to carry out duties under their contract of employment and the obligation of the Transitional Authority to pay wages to those employees is suspended for that period.

Section 14
Application of this Regulation to local governments

The provisions of this Regulation will apply to the budget and appropriation procedures of local governments unless specific rules establishing other procedures are set out in a Regulation establishing a local government or in another Regulation.

Part III
Preparation and contents of the annual budget and budget Regulations

Section 15
Preparation and submission of budget proposals

15.1 Subject to Section 15.2, each Agency shall appoint a Chief Financial Officer for the Agency approved by the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority.

15.2 Where an Agency has not appointed a Chief Financial Officer, the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority may nominate a Treasury officer to perform the functions of the Chief Financial Officer for the Agency.
15.3 A Chief Financial Officer appointed under Section 15.1 shall be accountable to the Head of the Agency.

15.4 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority shall issue to the Chief Financial Officer of each Agency a budget circular which explains necessary procedures for Chief Financial Officers to prepare Agency budgets and requests for appropriations.

15.5 The Chief Financial Officer of each Agency shall be responsible for the preparation of the budget submissions of the Agency in accordance with the instructions contained in the budget circular and forward the completed requests to the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority by the time specified.

15.6 Budget officers of the Central Fiscal Authority shall, in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of an Agency, confirm that the cost of expenditures for which appropriations have been requested, and other estimates, have been determined accurately and that the budget submission meets the requirements of the budget circular.

15.7 Budget officers of the Central Fiscal Authority and the Chief Financial Officer of an Agency shall seek to resolve disagreements and develop mutually acceptable budget submissions.

Section 16

(b) expected future receipts of grants irrevocably committed by foreign governments or international organizations; and
(c) expected future receipts.

19.2 The government finances Regulation appropriations Regulation shall designate a maximum amount that the Transitional Administration may:

(a) guarantee; and
(b) borrow.
Section 20
Review of the proposed budget

20.1 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority shall distribute to the head of each Agency the proposed appropriations for that Agency.

20.2 After consideration of proposed appropriations for an Agency, the Head of the Agency shall inform the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority in writing that the Agency:

(a) has no objections to the proposed appropriations; or
(b) objects to the proposed appropriations, indicating those aspects of the proposed appropriations to which the Agency objects.

20.3 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority shall attempt to resolve with the Heads of Agencies any objections they have to the specified appropriations in the proposed appropriations Regulation.

20.4 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority shall submit the proposed budget, appropriations Regulation, and government finances Regulation for consideration by the Budget Committee.

20.5 In the case that the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority is unable to resolve objections with a Head of an Agency, the Head of the Agency shall deliver to the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority details of the objections at least 48 hours prior to the meeting of the Budget Committee to consider the proposed appropriations.

20.6 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority shall submit to the Budget Committee any submissions prepared pursuant to Section 20.5 and his or her responses to the objections.

20.7 The Budget Committee may request Heads of Agencies to provide further submissions or explanations during consideration of the proposed budget.

20.8 After consideration of any submissions or explanations provided pursuant to this Section, the Budget Committee shall prepare an agreed budget, proposed appropriations Regulation, and proposed government finances Regulation for consideration of the Cabinet.

20.9 The Cabinet shall forward to the Transitional Administrator the agreed budget, proposed appropriations Regulation, and proposed government finances Regulation along with a summary of Cabinet's views on the budget and proposed Regulations.

20.10 The Head of the Central Fiscal Authority shall present the agreed budget, proposed appropriations Regulation, and proposed government finances Regulation to the National Council before June 15 of the year preceding the fiscal year to which the Regulation applies.

that do not form part of the Consolidated Fund of East Timor.

Section 22
Appropriations prior to adoption of an appropriations Regulation

22.1 If the appropriations Regulation in respect of a fiscal year is not enacted before the commencement of the fiscal year, the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority may make temporary appropriations necessary to the continuation of services of the Transitional Administration, provided that:

(a) each appropriation made pursuant to this Section shall be for expenditures for no more than one month; and
(b) any appropriation made under this Section does not exceed 1/12 of the appropriation for the same purpose in the appropriations Regulation of the previous fiscal year.

22.2 Appropriations made under Section 22.1 shall lapse when the appropriations Regulation becomes effective and all expenditure related to appropriations made under this Section from the beginning of the fiscal year until that time shall be treated as appropriations made under the appropriations Regulation for that fiscal year.

Part IV
Revised and supplementary budgets and appropriations Regulations

Section 23
Revised budget and appropriations Regulation

23.1 The Head of the CFA may prepare a revised budget and appropriations Regulation if:

(a) it appears to the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority that receipts of the Transitional Administration or expenditures for the fiscal year will be less or greater than those anticipated in the annual appropriations Regulation; or
(b) the Transitional Administration wishes to alter existing law or introduce or repeal laws that will have the effect of increasing or reducing receipts of the Transitional Administration for the fiscal year.
23.2 The procedure for adoption of a revised budget and appropriations Regulation shall be the same as that for an annual appropriations Regulation set out in Part III of the present Regulation, with the relevant provisions read:

(a) without reference to the date by which the Regulation must be introduced to the National Council; and
(b) where the law is meant to apply to only the remaining part of the fiscal year, with the law applying only to that part.

Section 24
New Regulations that include an appropriation

24.1 Where a Regulation is proposed to be enacted that requires additional expenditures in the current fiscal year, the Regulation shall provide an appropriation of the amount required to make the expenditures and indicate the extent to which proposed appropriation is to be funded from:

(a) unappropriated public money currently in the Consolidated Fund of East Timor;
(b) expected future receipts; or
(c) currently appropriated public money that will become unappropriated following the cancellation of part of an existing appropriation.

24.2 Where an appropriation is to be funded from public money that will become unappropriated following the cancellation of part of an existing appropriation:

(a) the Regulation requiring an appropriation shall specify the part of an existing appropriation to be cancelled; and
(b) the new appropriation shall be valid only after the cancellation has occurred.

Part V
Rules about appropriations

Section 25
Appropriations not used at the end of the fiscal year

All appropriations for a fiscal year shall lapse after 30 June of that fiscal year.

Section 26
Bank fees and charges

All bank fees and charges imposed in respect of accounts or investments of the Transitional Administration shall be paid from appropriations for the Central Fiscal Authority.
Section 27
Contingent expenditures

27.1 Subject to Section 27.2, in the event of urgent and unforeseen requirements, the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority may change the purpose of part of a contingent expenditure appropriation to a purpose of a Program of an Agency.

27.2 The part of the contingent expenditure appropriation that may be changed under Section 27.1 is:

(a) an amount not exceeding U.S. $50,000, or
(b) where the Transitional Administrator has, on the recommendation of the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority, approved the transfer in writing, an amount in excess of U.S. $50,000.

Section 28
Adjustments to appropriations of an Agency

Where requested by the Head of an Agency, the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority may authorize the transfer of amounts between appropriations for that Agency provided the transferred amount does not exceed 10% of the appropriation from which the amount is being transferred, as that appropriation is set out in an appropriations Regulation.

Section 29
Adjustment of appropriations on change of Agency responsibility

Where an appropriation relates to a function of an Agency that is transferred to a different Agency, the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority may transfer an appropriation or part of an appropriation from the first Agency to the second Agency, as appropriate.

Section 30
Adjustment of appropriations for supplies from other Agencies

Where an Agency acquires assets or services from another Agency, the amount charged for the acquisition shall be treated as an expenditure by the acquiring Agency and an additional appropriation to the providing Agency.

Section 31
Adjustment of appropriations upon repayment of amounts to which the Transitional Administration had no right

Where the Transitional Administration is required to repay an amount that was included in public money upon receipt but to which the Transitional Administration had no beneficial right, an appropriation shall be created for the Central Fiscal Authority for the amount to be repaid.
Part VI
Expenditure of appropriated public money

Section 32
Expenditure authorization notices

32.1 The Treasurer shall, from time to time, and subject to availability of funds, issue an expenditure authorization notice to authorize Agencies to spend or to commit to spend appropriations or part of appropriations.

32.2 Expenditure authorization notices shall specify the time period for which the authorization is valid.

32.3 No money shall be released from the Consolidated Fund of East Timor for expenditure that is not authorized by an expenditure authorization notice.

32.4 An expenditure authorization notice is not valid to the extent that it purports to authorize the expenditure of public money that has not been made available for expenditure in an appropriation.

32.5 The process to be complied with for the making of payments authorized by an expenditure authorization notice shall be determined by the Treasurer and communicated to Agencies by means of Financial Administration Instructions prepared by the Treasurer.

Section 33
Revocation and amendment of expenditure authorization notices

The Treasurer may at any time revoke or amend an expenditure authorization notice with the approval of the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority where the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority concludes the revocation or amendment:

(a) is desirable in the interests of prudent fiscal management; or
(b) is appropriate to ensure the continuation of expenditures throughout the fiscal year.

Section 34
Lapsed amounts in expenditure authorization notices

34.1 Where an amount specified in an expenditure authorization notice has not been fully expended at the time the validity of the expenditure authorization notice expires, the Head of an Agency may request the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority to amend an expenditure authorization notice for another period by the amount not expended.

34.2 The Head of the Agency may seek a direction from the Cabinet that the Head of the Central Fiscal Authority increase the amount specified in an expenditure authorization notice to the extent that appropriated funds to which the expenditure authorization notice relates have not be expended.
Section 35
Refunds of expenditures
